Kamelya Kudo, Foreign Rights

"This funny, frightening, and original first novel tackles feminism, relationships, nostalgia, and bigotry. What would you do if your wife asked you to wear a dress?"

One evening, before having friends over for dinner, Isabelle offers her husband Jean-Pierre a dress. Is this some terrible prank or a genuine invitation to change? Could it be that the world has evolved so much without Jean-Pierre's realizing it?

A novel of provocative humor that questions the transformations in our society and intimate relationships.
