"A propulsive fantasy series set in a richly developed alternate Swinging London with timely themes like diversity and respecting difference. Amazing adventure awaits!"

1960s, Swinging London: England finds out fairies are real.

Welcome to an alternative London where fairies have revealed their existence to the world. Changes abound, tensions run high... Follow Ailith, Anann and more as they investigate perilous mysteries. Each story in this book is a standalone adventure featuring a reporter, a policeman, and others.

When Ailith reaches London on the trail of mysterious disappearances, she accepts help at once from her childhood friend Eliott, an outspoken cop who blames everything on fairies and hates them. Their case leads them deep into the woods, where Ailith has her most disturbing encounter ever, leading to the unsettling discovery of a hidden wound.
