A polyphonic novel of love, friendship, and recovery.

Aicha puts up five teens—Léo, Alice, Sarah, Stéphan, and Camille—at her house while they put their shattered lives back together. Soon they form a family, savoring this magical time away from the world. Each of them has a secret hidden deep down inside, which they find hard to confess to the others. But the outside world comes crashing back in, calling them back to their lives and threatening the group's harmony.
