Like Sally Rooney's Normal People and Clémentine Beauvais' Songe à la douceur, the searing portrait of one summer and French teens in love.

Summer. A suburban housing development. Heat. Teens. There's Chloé, who lives vicariously through books and loves in secret. Gabriel and his pretty face, a heartbreaker. Lola and Romane, bare midribs and short-shorts, who get all the looks: Lola wants to be a star, Romane to escape, for in her home dwells the Ogre with his fists. Cyrus, with his head in the clouds, is madly in love with her. From across the street, he sits and pines at his window. Crazy, how dreams and desire can obsess you...
