A comedy about the familial, professional, and romantic misfortunes of a single mother at wits' end over her 14-year-old daughter's behavior.

Andrea, a successful CEO, is on the verge of a nervous breakdown from having to raise her daughter Gala alone. When Gala spins out of control and is even booted from school, she decides to spare no cost in getting her that baccalaureate degree, even if it means family therapy and sacrificing her love life or career. A tender and jubilant comedy about mother-daughter relationships.
