An action story about violence and redemption by two specialists in South American gangs.

A former hitman, Salva has radically changed after ten years in prison. He has become a pastor and made it his mission to build a church in his hometown of Cali, plagued by violent mafias. But it's not easy to escape the demons of one's past. Especially when Victor, his childhood best friend and his daughter's godfather, has continued to climb the ladder to become the barrio's drug boss.
