A wild comedy about life and its coincidences.

What do you do when you find out you only have three months left to live? Martin Henri wants to go see whales in Canada. It's a dream that he's constantly put off, but now he must fulfill it. However, his trip doesn't go at all as planned!

Full of improbable misunderstandings, impeccable timing, and nods to the masters of visual comedy from Hergé to Tati... The likelihood of a good time is very high!
