Nate is a normal boy... but when he's asleep, his nightmares become real! In order to stay awake and keep his family safe, Nate lives on coffee.

But his nightmares continue even when he's awake. Gradually, human beings begin falling into a kind of coma, and Nate's family is in mortal danger. In an attempt to save them, Nate decides to leave home. Will he ever manage to find out why these things are happening and be able to live a normal life at last?
