A magical and luminous book to learn to believe in your dreams.

Mademoiselle Papillon is an extraordinary nurse who wants to help children in need. At night in her bed, she dreams of the huge home that she'd like to build for them. Every night, this house becomes more precise in her mind's eye, so precise that she could almost reach out and touch it.

Sometimes, Mademoiselle Papillon feels small in the face of such a big dream. But she never gives up... A book that pays homage to an exceptional—and little-known—woman who helped thousands of children.
