Vibrant stories full of humor that always share a little life lesson, to grow up with a smile!

Each book in this series showcases one or two main characters and explores a general theme, concluding with a life lesson that is naturally integrated into the story and easily understood by children. The stories are positive and educational. For example, The Catty Cats recounts how a brother and sister learn to cooperate after a fight, illustrating the series' humorous and pedagogical approach to helping kids as they grow up.

Ongoing series: 25 picture books, 2 early chapter books, and 2 board books published.
