Leaving it all behind to risk the open road and its chance encounters can change your life!

Mole is a busy, fearful carrot farmer, and Stag Beetle a lonely psychiatrist. Over the course of the story, an unlikely chance encounter between the two leads to a beautiful friendship. Their nighttime strolls provide an outlet for adventure as they explore both nature and themselves. In their time together, Mole learns to trust himself and take risks through the support of his new friend, while Stag Beetle opens up about the personal struggles he previously felt he had no one to tell. Join the duo on a journey of unlikely friendship and adventure through the woods in Soyung Lee's stunning prose and illustrations.
