Winter is coming, but Marmottine refuses to stay cooped up in her burrow!

Winter is coming. The alpine animals are getting ready, including Marmottine's family. But the youngest family member refuses to spend months cooped up in the dark. She wants to spend winter in the fresh air! So one morning, Marmottine heads out into the woods... A tale of initiation, delightfully written by Geneviève Laurencin and featuring precise and gentle drawings by Arnaud Descheemacker that bring the mountain and its inhabitants to life.
