

Poverty Explained to Children by Esther Duflo

Ima - To the rescue!

Authors: Duflo Esther (Text) - Cheyenne Olivier (Illustrations)

Publisher : Le Seuil Jeunesse

Category : Children's Books

Genres : Non-Fiction Children's Books

Keywords : Economics - Africa

A Nobel Prize laureate in Economics, Esther Duflo tackles themes related to poverty in this series in order to talk about it simply with children.

The characters could be from Africa, Asia, or South America, but instead they live in an imaginary village created by Cheyenne Olivier. In these books, children will discover the characters' daily lives and difficulties. An opportunity to show other stories and images of poverty, far from the prejudices, myths, and caricatures to which the poor are too often subjected. These books invite us to think and talk about poverty, a subject that concerns us all. Completed series, 10 titles published.
