In the unusual setting of an engraving studio, this book humorously explores the complexity of familial ties.

Nonna looks after her grandson in her engraving studio where she lives. The old lady is not always easy to get along with. One day, she pays so little attention to her young guest that she accidentally flattens him in her press! He emerges as thin as a sheet of paper. Together, they try everything to make him three-dimensional again and restore the bond between them. Will the little boy find his place in Nonna's workshop and in her heart?
