A raw, spare text that expresses the unthinkable.

He is almost twenty. He lives far away. Far away from his family, from himself. But sometimes he comes back: family meals, Christmas... he can't escape it. So, in silence, he watches the show, the one his perfect father puts on. A father who wouldn't enter his son's bedroom, at night, to force him to do what no child should be forced to do with anyone, much less with his own kin.
