What if you lost the last year of your life? Meet a strong, proud heroine, a high-level athlete, as inspiring as she is moving.

An accident on the slopes leaves ski cross champ Tessa in a coma. Her loved ones keep vigil by her bedside, painting the portrait of a fighter, mischievous and full of joy. When she wakes, Tessa realizes she's forgotten everything from a whole year before the accident. She's not the same person anymore and doesn't recognize Edgar, who's in love with her. While Tessa struggles to find herself and recover, Edgar hopes to rekindle their love.
