A generous, tender, and fierce adventure in which evil demons and social injustices collide.

Kgosi finally returns to his native land. Saved from the mercenaries sent by his brother, he embarks on the final chapter of his quest for redemption to free his people from slavery, and liberate himself from the demon-king Bakham. To confront his brother and establish peace between the carnivores and herbivores, Kgosi must convince his former rivals of his loyalty and the nobility of his cause. With victory far from certain, Princess Byra Nialy sets off in search of mysterious and... legendary help.
