After her highly touted Thieves (Voleuse) Lucie Bryon, is back with three irresistible short (love) stories!

Once upon a time, a cemetery groundskeeper falls in love with a professional mourner who looks like the melancholy clown Pierrot... or is he a ghost? Once upon a time, an art student asks a young man to pose naked for her one New Year's Eve. Once upon a time, agents from the future are sent to a small seaside town in our present day to fix a temporal paradox. As they come to love while enjoying gelato and the sunset, they're surprised to find they'd rather stay than go home...
