Freely inspired by the work by George Orwell, a spectacular sequel to 1984.

A hooded individual spray-paints a giant face on the wall of a London apartment tower. Spotted by a camera, he is chased by the militia. In his haste, a book falls from his pocket: "The Book of Winston." The book is brought back to Thought Police Officer O'Brien of the Inner Party at the Ministry of Truth. "Draw me up a list of names. I want everyone who was in contact with Winston during his captivity identified. The culprit must be among them." February 24, 1985: Year 1 of the new regime...
