A twist on a classic fairy tale with cut-outs, flaps and spectacular paintings.
Special mention at Bologna Children's Book Fair 2025.

You know the story of the disobedient little girl who wandered too far from home, went into the bears' house, and made a mess there. Well, this book focuses on the discoveries she made along the way. Combining subtle cutouts and paintings of lush woods, Caroline Gamon whisks readers off on an adventure that shows how much Goldilocks grows along her journey. And that even when you get into trouble, it's never too late to go home to Mama! Don't miss the memorable ending: unfold the last page to reveal a head-to-toe illustration of Goldilocks, who has literally grown from her experience!
