Sadako, a little paper crane, dreams of dancing and taking flight like the real cranes of Hokkaido. When Suzu, a giant hornet, taunts her, she finds the courage to flap it away with her wing. In the space of a breath, she is transformed into a majestic crane. But she's still unsure and lacks self-confidence. Thanks to the encouragement of Kitsune, the fox, she discovers that with perseverance and dreams, anything is possible. As the stars shower down, she finally joins the dance of the cranes.
