Little Caterpillar loves to eat. When she turns into a butterfly, her wings reflect all the colors of her feasts!

That morning, Little Caterpillar emerges from her egg. She is hungry, very hungry. She feels like eating blue, green, yellow, and even red. What a strange idea! Once she's eaten her fill, she weaves her cocoon and goes to sleep. And turns into a beautiful butterfly. When she spreads her wings, there's a little bit of sky blue, a spot of green grass, a ray of yellow sun, and a smear of lipstick... A funny and endearing book, to accompany children as they take flight.
