A sturdy cardboard book with cutouts to play with fear, onomatopoeias, and darkness.

It's nighttime, and Loulou hears noises: Hoot Hoot! Rrrr Rrrr, Frootch Frootch... What could they be? An owl? Mice? Cats? A sturdy board book to both spook and soothe. At night, perceptions change, but do the sounds really need to be scary?

Clever cutouts in the pages and a guessing game with onomatopoeias help reassure children about their fear of the dark.
