In this refreshing illustrated novel, brave, visionary children dismantle false beliefs and reinvent democracy!

Before diving into the adventures of the Children of the Cold, you'd better grab a warm blanket and pluck up your courage! For when our story begins, twins Myk and Ana, along with their friend Luba, are about to face grave danger that will change their fates forever. On a quest for fish from the Primordial Lake, whose sudden disappearance threatens the region's delicate ecological balance, they must show proof of unwavering resolve if humans and magical creatures alike are to survive this terrible winter...
