A scandal breaks out in a high school when a social network is used inappropriately.

At George Sand High School, social media, reputation, and appearance reign supreme: every gesture is observed, commented on, and shared. Maud and Elina, inseparable friends, are trying to lead a normal lives, but everything changes when an art project pushes them to reveal themselves through short films, leading to a series of unpredictable events. As public and virtual humiliation spread, tensions rise dangerously. Who will emerge unscathed?
