The choice of Audrey Gérard, Director of Children's Books
"Dive headfirst into the fascinating world of oceans and humpback whales!"

Did you know that a humpback whale is as tall as a five-story building and as heavy as ten trucks? Join the humpback whale on a deep dive into the ocean depths and discover its incredible migrations around the Earth, its epic battles with the fearsome orcas, its secret hunting techniques, its unique courtship displays, and its supermom instinct. And if, after learning all this, you found out its habitat was threatened by pollution, how would you react? This book raises awareness among young readers by showcasing the spectacle of nature.
