"Before becoming full-fledged animals, preanimals are just adorable little furballs who need to figure out what they want to be. Easier said than done!"

Before becoming full-fledged animals, preanimals are just adorable little furballs who need to figure out what they want to be. Pado is really excited about becoming an animal, because he loves every single animal there is! So he and his two friends are out to discover if they have what it takes to be a cat. But first he must face seven tests, each more difficult and hilarious than the last!
