Love in the age of the musketeers!

At the court of Louis XIII and Anne of Austria, the Duchess of Chevreuse makes and breaks alliances. She played matchmaker so that pretty Alma de Choisy would be engaged to Jean, soon to be the Count of Féignac. But rumor has it that in the shadows another couple, even more brilliant and passionate still, might be forming, menacing the Duchess' plans and her influence at court. And what has this all to do with a famous prince, as handsome as he is debauched, recently returned after many years abroad?
