The choice of Alain Serres, Director

"When it comes to eating, washing up, and especially, saying 'I Love You,' Papa can be such a slowpoke!"

This child has such an extremely slow father. Life can be hard for a kid when your dad make sure to eat his couscous one grain at a time. When he's sad, his tears don't start rolling down his cheeks till hours later. And though he takes forever pampering his favorite pet—a slug—he never seems to say much to his family; his every sentence starts with a series of long, drawn-out "I... I... I..." but never goes anywhere. But one day, when he sets out to travel the world, he finally finishes his sentence for the first time in his life, uttering a deeply moving "I love you!" to his son...
