The choice of Inês Alafarela Martins, Editor

"This funny, touching, highly colorful picture book celebrates the importance of love and helping others: a book to be read over and over with your child!"

Today is Vasco's birthday. But before setting out for school, he notices his favorite stuffie, Moumou, is missing. Vasco enlists the whole house to search for him: Mama Lulu, Mama Lolo, Papa Jojo, Papa Frédo—even the boarders! "I picked Moumou the First as my favorite for its kindness and tender look at today's families. Beneath this quest for a vanished toy lies a declaration of love for families in all their diversity. This funny, touching, highly colorful picture book celebrates the importance of love and helping others: a book to be read over and over with your child!"
