

Paul Chemetov: Being an Architect Seven Conversations

Author: Frédéric Lenne

Publisher : Arléa

Category : Humanities and Non-Fiction

Genres : Essay

Keywords : Architecture

Being an architect means caring about construction and posterity.

In these conversations with Frédéric Lenne, Paul Chemetov tackles his relationship with time and posterity: his politics, his vision of the evolution of architectural commissions, his interest in technique, and the subverting and re-using of materials, including buildings.
