A sensitive look at nontraditional models of family.

Every Tuesday, Mika has her afterschool snack with her friend Lola twice: once at her dad's, and once at her mom's, because Lola has two homes.

Lola's dad makes pancakes. Lola's mom has a rabbit and a kitten. And both love Lola, each in their own house.

Mika and Zouzou: an imprint for kindhearted stories specially designed by educational psychologist Laurence Dudek to guide children ages 3-5 and their parents through life's big questions.
