A "loving kaleidoscope" of Catherine Deneuve in 124 watercolors, drawings, and paintings.

One hundred and twenty-four watercolors, drawings, and paintings attempt to capture the elusive actress beloved by the French and cinephiles the world over. Marc-Antoine Coulon's style is timeless glamour: powerful, precise, sensitive, at times sexy and insolent. He knows how to seize upon a look or pose and make it sublime, usually with a thick black line or shading that emphasizes the figure. This linework blends with deft combinations of watercolor to lend his creations incredible depth, the source of his unique and instantly recognizable style.
