Female piracy: an unexpected version.

Mary Read has lost everything. That is why she boards a boat one day off the coast of England. She no longer knows who she is or where she is going. But she acquires a new sense of freedom as she hears tales of a plunderer of the seas, an heartbreaker... a certain Ann Bonny. With Mary Read & Ann Bonny, Lou Dvina's gifts as a graphic novelist are on full display as she pursues her commitment to celebrating all human bodies by reappropriating history in a queer version through the figures of these forgotten women pirates.
