A beautiful, poetic, and gentle musical journey through the life of the great Mozart, illustrated by Marie Dorléans.

"What if we went on a journey? The country we would visit is called music, the music of Herrr Mozart. Together, we will encounter a great genius and a little voice, three tears and ten laughs, a witch and a lover, evening operas and a little night music, a butterfly and lots of stars." Carl Norac's mischievous and poetic pen brings the composer's imagination to life and retraces the master's days with great humour. Marie Dorléans' playful and elegant illustrations perfectly embody the composer's classical and fantastical universe.
