The biography of a Colombian boy, from his enlistment in the FARC to his successful reintegration into civilian life.

Through a series of short episodes, Alberto – a young boy from rural Colombia – recounts his life from age 9 to 22. At the age of 10, he makes a life-altering decision: to leave his impoverished family and join a FARC guerrilla unit with his sister. He spends five years in the jungle, learning the inner workings of the armed group, its daily routines, and its missions.
